

It has been a big relief to not incur phone charges when calling my answering machine to remotely retrieve messages since the Do Not Call law (NJ and federal) went into effect. My answering machine is no longer clogged with unsolicited calls. Moreover, I think you should be more concerned about MY right NOT to be bombarded with unsolicited phone calls than with any telemarketers perceived right to DISTURB my peace !!!!